DOUBLE PLAY

HAPPY By Alan Zweibel
BECOMING SACHEL PAIGE by Dan McCormick
Directed by Roy Steinberg

May 25 - June 26

Featuring back-to-back one act plays, "Double Play" starts with an exploration of the life of one of America's most iconic baseball players in the new play "Becoming Satchel Paige". After the seventh inning stretch, we present "Happy", about a baseball fan who travels to Delray Beach to find "Happy" Haliday, a favorite baseball player from his youth, and to get his signature on a baseball... but what he really gets from "Happy" is priceless.

THE LIFESPAN OF A FACT

Written by Jeremy Kareken,
David Murrell, & Gordon Farrell
Directed by Roy Steinberg

Aug. 31 - Oct. 2

Based on the true story of D'Agata's essay What Happens There, this comedic, yet gripping, battle over facts versus truth, a fresh-out-of-Harvard fact checker takes on a talented writer's essay that could save the sinking New York magazine from collapse.

ONE CHRISTMAS CAROL

Written by Douglas H. Baker
Directed by Roy Steinberg

Nov. 16 - Dec. 30

This one-man tour de force is an intimate and spirited evening of theatre that everyone in the family will love! Dickens' famous story about selfishness and selflessness is stripped down to its bare essence, forgoing the usual opulence of the holidays and focusing on what is of utmost importance during the season.
